6. Talked with Charles Johnson (House Post Office and Civil Service Committee staff) concerning H. R. 5007. He was advised that our interest in this bill runs from a basic question of whether we were covered under it to minor technical points. He indicated that the Committee would not be acting on this bill until the latter part of May. He will call us prior to that time to discuss the bill with us.

Johnson took this opportunity to express his thanks and those of Fred Belen for the luncheon and briefing last Friday. He said it was one of the finest sessions of its type that he had had the pleasure to attend.

7. Mr. Herb Kirstein in Senator Wiley's (R., Wis.) office called in connection [redacted] which we had sent to the Senator. He asked if, in using them, the Senator could indicate that he had received them from CIA. He was advised that if the Senator had no objection we would prefer that he merely make reference to the original source of the broadcast without indicating that the transcripts had been provided by CIA. He said that this would be fine. In addition arrangements were made for the Senator to receive the [redacted]

8. Arrangements were made through Mrs. Lewis (HCUA) to obtain from the Alderson Reporting Company the transcript of Harry Bridges' testimony before that committee. The transcript had been requested by the CI staff.

9. [redacted] was asked to send to Congressman Stratton the [redacted] requested by his office. The transcript was sent by courier.
